b. Mr. [REDACTED] a Summer Intern attending [REDACTED] and working with OER, has had two articles published in the National Intelligence Daily and in the President's Daily Brief.

c. The 8 August "Parade" section of the Washington Post carried a short article on the Agency's Summer Intern Program. It was reported that we have 50 students from 35 schools in this year's program. The thrust of the article was that we are interested in students from other than the traditional Ivy League schools. Mr. Janney and Mr. Bush were mentioned by name and the schools they had attended.

2. Clerical Advertising: Clerical advertising has been placed in newspapers in various cities in Virginia, Ohio and Kentucky to stimulate applications from clerical and secretarial candidates. In addition, ads have been placed for courier and guard personnel for OD&E in local weekly papers. The response to date has been favorable.
